THE BAPTISTS ADJOURN.

General Association Will Meet in Roanoke Next Year.

MEMBERS OF THE SEVERAL BOARDS.

The Salary of the Treasurer Increased to Four Hundred Dollars per Year.
Resolutions of Thanks.
Farewell Addresses.

The last day's session of the Baptist General Association was opened at the usual hour yesterday morning by Moderator Dunaway. The number of delegates present at that time was rather small, but the Grace-Street tabernacle soon afterwards began to fill up. The sessions have all been of the most harmonious and inspiring character, and the attendants have shown an earnestness at all times which has never been surpassed by any other religious gathering in this city or elsewhere in the State.

Rev. Mr. Whipple offered a fervent prayer; then Rev. Hugh C. Smith, the indefatigable secretary, read the minutes of the previous evening.

Rev. Mr. Winslow presented the following resolutions, with the request that they be laid over for an hour:

"Resolved, First, That a committee of seven be now appointed with instructions to prepare and fully publish three weeks before our next annual meeting a program of exercises for the same.

"Second, That the said committee be and is hereby requested—(a) to endeavor to arrange by each program more compact presentation of the interests and enterprises usually exhibited by this body, one regard being had, however, to the right of autonomy and freedom of discussion; (b) to provide by such programs for the discussion of some leading topic or topics of living interest not now formally brought before this body, but germane to and embraced in the scope and purpose of its work.

"Third, That the time covered by such program must not exceed five days.

FAITHFUL WOMEN.

Rev. Mr. Beale presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

"Resolved, That this association express its high appreciation and warmest commendation of the faithful and efficient work performed by the Rev. W. F. Dunaway, who embodied in the admirable and inspiring report presented by his executive committee; and

"Resolved, That we greet them as beloved co-workers in the Lord and pledge them all possible help and encouragement in their important and far-reaching work."

On motion of Rev. Mr. Battle it was decided that the report of the special committee on report of the Committee of Cooperation be made the special order for the 15th.

Rev. Mr. Tucker then presented the following report:

"We, your committee, appointed to consider the communication of Dr. Josiah Strong, asking that we shall consider the propriety of advising the several churches composing this body, to observe the 15th day of November as a day of prayer for the welfare of the 'Union of the States' big enough to report that much as the said date is at hand, that it would be unwise to recommend further than that we pray for the alliance, which has been such a power in our land for the advancement of our Master's Kingdom."

The report was adopted and after the congregation had sung the hymn "Rock of Ages," Rev. William C. Fletcher offered a general prayer for the alliance.

The Moderator then appointed the following standing committees:

"First, That the said committee be and is hereby requested—(a) to endeavor to arrange by each program more compact presentation of the interests and enterprises usually exhibited by this body, one regard being had, however, to the right of autonomy and freedom of discussion; (b) to provide by such programs for the discussion of some leading topic or topics of living interest not now formally brought before this body, but germane to and embraced in the scope and purpose of its work."
